You beauty!* Celebrating those who make Melbourne glow

Pioneering business leader and MECCA Brands founder and Co-CEO Jo Horgan has been named Melburnian of the Year at the Melbourne Awards.

Recognised for her exceptional leadership and contribution to the city, Horgan has grown MECCA from a single South Yarra store into a beauty empire with more than 110 stores across Australia and New Zealand.

Through MECCA's M-POWER and M-PACT programs, she continues to champion gender equality and education for women and girls, making a lasting impact well beyond the beauty industry.

The Young Melburnian of the Year is Dr Belle Lim, recognised for advancing diversity, equity and inclusion for international students and women in STEM.

A cancer genetics researcher and founder of Future Forte, Dr Lim has built programs reaching more than 2,500 participants from over 50 countries, and as National President of the Council of International Students Australia in 2020–21 led advocacy benefiting more than 550,000 students.

The 2025 Melbourne Awards have recognised the individuals and organisations driving positive change across the city – celebrating leadership, creativity, and community spirit at Melbourne's highest civic honour.

Held at Melbourne Town Hall on Saturday 15 November, the annual ceremony acknowledged excellence across eight categories that reflect the city's diversity and progress: Aboriginal Melbourne - ganbu guljin, Access and Inclusion, Arts and Events, City Design, Community, Knowledge and Innovation, LGBTIQA+, and Sustainability.

The City of Melbourne thanks its event partners and supporters for helping to celebrate those shaping the city's bright future.

Quotes attributable to Lord Mayor Nick Reece

"The Melbourne Awards are about recognising the incredible Melburnians who push the envelope and go above and beyond to make our city the best and fairest it can be."

“Jo is a true representation of Melbourne grit and determination – growing a beloved beauty empire from scratch on our home turf, with MECCA now turning over half a billion dollars annually.”

“Belle has also demonstrated that Melbourne is a city of possibilities – arriving as an international student, advancing her studies and leadership in supporting women of international backgrounds every step of the way.”

Quotes attributable to Tourism and Events portfolio head Mark Scott

“This year’s finalists represent the spirit of Melbourne – inclusive, creative, innovative, and deeply community-minded.”

“From sustainability champions to arts leaders, every finalist is making our city stronger, more connected – and doing us all proud.”
